Hitting the Ground Running:
Gearing Up for the Real World

Presented by
The Peter W. Rodino Law Library

Program

Monday, May 11th
8:30 AM to 2:30 PM
Seton Hall Law Rodino Library 4th Floor
Continental Breakfast  8:30 a.m. – 9:00 a.m.

From Law School to Practice  9:00 a.m. – 9:30 a.m.
A perspective from a former research assistant, judicial clerk, and law firm associate

KAITLYN E. STONE, ESQ.
Associate, Business & Commercial Litigation
Gibbons P.C.
Newark, New Jersey

Where’s our Stuff?  9:30 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.
Learn how to find Rodino’s resources

KRISTINA ANDERSON
Electronic Resources Librarian
Peter W. Rodino, Jr. Law Library

Break  10:00 a.m. – 10:10 a.m.

Google Wow! And Other Search Engines  10:10 a.m. – 10:40 a.m.
Learn how several search engines work and use advanced features to research online and in library databases

KRISTINA ANDERSON
Electronic Resources Librarian
Peter W. Rodino, Jr. Law Library

Getting Your Research Started  10:40 a.m. – 11:10 a.m.
Tips on good research practices using scholarly books and articles

MAJA BASIOLE
Associate Professor & Reference/Administration Librarian
Peter W. Rodino, Jr. Law Library

The Transactional Lawyer  11:10 a.m. – 11:40 a.m.
Law students get exposed to how to do case law research, but what about researching when you are transactional lawyer? Learn about resources and research tips if you’re interested in transactional law, including due diligence, model agreements, public companies, and more!

BRITTANY PERSSON
Assistant Professor & Reference/Acquisitions Librarian
Peter W. Rodino, Jr. Law Library
What Did They Mean By That? Determining Legislative Intent Through Government Documents and Legislative History

Determining the meaning of a statute often requires looking beyond the text. An understanding of the uses of “legislative history” and where it may be found is often critical.

DIANNE OSTER
Associate Professor & Serials/Government Documents Librarian
Rodino Archivist
Peter W. Rodino, Jr. Law Library

Writing a Comment or AWR

What you need to take into consideration when writing your comment, note or AWR

CHARLES A. SULLIVAN,
Andrea J Catania Endowed Professor of Law & Director, Rodino Law Library

Bluebooking Esoteric Sources

Getting ready for the write-on

BRITTANY PERSSON
Assistant Professor & Reference/Acquisitions Librarian
Peter W. Rodino, Jr. Law Library